New York, N.Y. 10007

Principal Investigator: William Harting

Principal Investigator Number: ST-345

Progress

Since the spacecraft has not been launched, no progress has been made or the primary objective. Several preparations have been made.

1. Technical information has been gathered on filters and filter combinations to be used.
2. Technical briefings have been held with various staff members on procedures for data handling.
3. Contact has been established with other principal investigators in the Northeast Region.
4. Ground truth data has been formatted to meet ERTS requirements.
